PARISH NEWS SHEET

18th August 2019
Ninth Sunday after Trinity

Everyone is welcome here!

We hope that you feel at home in our churches whether this is your first or thousandth visit here. May you know the love and peace of God as we worship together. Today's order of service is in a separate booklet and in this sheet you will find the readings and prayers for today, as well as news and upcoming events.

Further information about our parish can be found at the back of the church.

If you need anything at all, for example a gluten-free wafer during communion, please ask a member of the welcome team, and do please join us for refreshments, available at all three churches after the morning services.

Please feel free to take this leaflet home

Collect:

Gracious Father, revive your Church in our day, and make her holy, strong and faithful, for your glory's sake in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 5.1-7

¹Let me sing for my beloved my love-song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. ²He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watch-tower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; he expected it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. ³And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. ⁴What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done in it? When I expected it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes? ⁵And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down. ⁶I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and it shall be overgrown with briars and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. ⁷For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting; he expected justice, but saw bloodshed; righteousness, but heard a cry!

Psalm 80:9-20Common Worship set chant

- 9 You brought a ¹ vine • out of ¹ Egypt; ♦
you drove ¹ out the ¹ nations and ¹ planted it.
- 10 You made ¹ room a¹round it, ♦ and when it had taken ¹ root, it ¹ filled the ¹ land.
- 11 The hills were ¹ covered • with its ¹ shadow ♦ and the cedars of ¹ God ¹ by its ¹ boughs.
- 12 It stretched out its ¹ branches • to the ¹ Sea ♦ and its ¹ tendrils ¹ to the ¹ River.

- 13 Why then have you broken ' down its ' wall, ♦
so that all who pass ' by pluck ' off its ' grapes?
- 14 The wild boar out of the wood ' tears it ' off, ♦
and all the ' insects • of the ' field de'vour it.
- 15 Turn again, O ' God of ' hosts, ♦
look down from ' heaven ' and be'hold;
- 16 Cherish this vine which your ' right hand has ' planted, ♦
and the branch that you ' made so ' strong for your'self.
- 17 Let those who burnt it with fire, who ' cut it ' down, ♦ perish ' at the re'buke • of your ' countenance.
- 18 Let your hand be upon ' the man • at your ' right hand, ♦
the son of man you ' made so ' strong • for your'self.
- 19 And so will we ' not go ' back from you; ♦ give us life, and we shall ' call up'on your ' name.
- 20 Turn us again, O Lord ' God of ' hosts; ♦ show the light of your countenance, ' and we ' shall be ' saved.

Second Reading: Hebrews 11.29 - 12.2

²⁹By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned. ³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days. ³¹By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace. ³²And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets — ³³who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, ³⁴quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. ³⁵Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection. ³⁶Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. ³⁷They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented — ³⁸of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground. ³⁹Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised, ⁴⁰since God had provided something better so that they would not, without us, be made perfect.

¹Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Gospel: Luke 12.49-56

⁴⁹Jesus said, ‘I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! ⁵⁰I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed! ⁵¹Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division! ⁵²From now on, five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three; ⁵³they will be divided: father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.’ ⁵⁴He also said to the crowds, ‘When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, “It is going to rain”; and so it happens. ⁵⁵And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, “There will be scorching heat”; and it happens. ⁵⁶You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?’

Intercessions:

Our Parish: Give thanks for the grant of the faculty for phase I of the work at St Nicolas and pray for the churchwardens, David and Adrian, Columba our architect and all the project group as they take the work forward.

Our Community: Pray for all who have just received BTech and A level results, for those who are celebrating and for those who are disappointed. May they all find the right way ahead for them.

The World: Pray for our own country, for the Prime Minister and government and all whose words and actions will influence our future, for wisdom and care for our world.

NSAB Burma Link: Pray for Bishop Muang Doe and Joanna on their trip to the US.

The Sick: We give thanks for the recovery of those who have been ill and pray for all who are in need of God's healing, comfort and peace and those who care for them. We pray for Christopher Browne, John Guy, Beryl Hickman, Mike Mayne, Linda McDougall, Hugh Murray, Judy Page, Rogelio Prieto, Patricia Rickard, John Shakespeare, Vicky Stephens, Yvonne Toomer and all who are prevented from attending church through frailty or illness.

The Departed: We pray for Eric Thorn and all those who have died recently, all those known personally to us and for all those whose anniversary falls at this time.

Post Communion Prayer:

Holy Father, who gathered us here around the table of your Son to share this meal with the whole household of God: in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace, gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please make sure you let a member of the Ministry Team or the wardens know if you notice anyone has been missing from church for a while.

St. Nicolas Update

Following the Chancellor's recent visit to the church, we are pleased to let you know that the Chancellor has granted a faculty for phase one of the work. He has accepted all our proposals for building works, new toilets and reordering except our choice of a new chair. He wishes us to have wooden chairs instead, and we will now have to identify a suitable design. We are in the process of identifying potential contractors and inviting them to tender for the work.

Community Coffee Morning

is taking a break on 14th and 21st August.

We will be back as normal on Wednesday 28th August.

Meeting for Prayer - North Stoneham Park...

If you've been down Stoneham Lane recently you will have seen the rapid growth of the North Stoneham Park development. To help us play our part in the revitalisation of this corner of the parish we are meeting once a month to pray together at St. Nicolas. We will be praying for the ongoing work on the North Stoneham Park development, its new residents, and for us as we seek to be good news for our neighbours.

The next one is this afternoon 4-5.30pm at St. Nicolas.

For more info please contact Jono on 07907 054763 or jono@nsab.org.uk
