Collect:

Gracious God, you call us to fullness of life: deliver us from unbelief and banish our anxieties with the liberating love of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading: Jeremiah 11:18-20

¹⁸It was the Lord who made it known to me, and I knew; then you showed me their evil deeds. ¹⁹But I was like a gentle I ambled to the slaughter. And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying, Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will no longer be remembered!’ ²⁰But you, O Lord of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind, let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Psalm: 54 Common Worship set chant

- 1 Save me, O God, ¹ by your ¹ name ◆ and ¹ vindicate ¹ me • by your ¹ power.
- 2 Hear my ¹ prayer, O ¹ God; ◆ give ¹ heed • to the ¹ words of my ¹ mouth.
- ‡ 3 For strangers have risen up against me,
and the ruthless seek ¹ after my ¹ life; ◆
they have ¹ not set ¹ God be¹fore them.
- 4 Behold, ¹ God is my ¹ helper; ◆
it is the ¹ Lord • who up¹holds my ¹ life.
- 5 May evil rebound on those who ¹ lie in ¹ wait for me; ◆ des¹troy them ¹ in your ¹ faithfulness.
- 6 An offering of a free heart ¹ will I ¹ give you ◆ and praise your name, O ¹ Lord, for ¹ it is ¹ gracious.
- 7 For he has delivered me out of ¹ all my ¹ trouble, ◆ and my eye has seen the ¹ downfall ¹ of my ¹ enemies.

Second Reading: James 3.13 - 4.3, 7-8a

¹³Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. ¹⁴But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. ¹⁵Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. ¹⁶For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. ¹⁷But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. ¹⁸And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

¹Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? ²You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. ³You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures. ⁷Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded

Gospel: Mark 9. 30-37

³⁰They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; ³¹for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' ³²But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. ³³Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' ³⁴But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. ³⁵He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' ³⁶Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

On September 25th, the church remembers Lancelot Andrewes, a Bishop of Winchester in the time of King James I and VI, and one of those who supervised the production of the Authorised (King James) version of the Bible. Parts of one of his intercessory prayers sound strikingly modern:

Remember, O Lord, infants, children, the growing youths, the young men and women, the middle-aged, the old, the decayed; hungry, thirsty, naked, sick, captive, and friendless strangers; those possessed with devils and tempted to suicide; those troubled by unclean spirits; the sick in soul or body; the fainthearted, the despairing; those in prisons and chains, and all under the sentence of death; orphans, widows, foreigners, travellers, voyagers; women with child, women who give suck; those in bitter servitude, those who work in mines, and those who suffer loneliness. Amen

Labyrinth Walk

St Augustine is reported to have said solvitur ambulando 'it is solved by walking'. The act of simply walking and following a path under our feet can help quiet the mind and refresh the body and spirit.

You are invited to experience this for yourself by walking a canvas labyrinth (a representation of the Chartres labyrinth, which dates back to ~1201)

NSAB Parish Hall

(behind St Michael & All Angels Church, Bassett Avenue)

Friday 12th October

6:30-8pm

Bring your curiosity, a pair of clean socks and your journal or notebook if you like to make written reflections.

WHAT IS A LABYRINTH?

The labyrinth is a walking meditation, a path of prayer and an archetypal blueprint where psyche meets Spirit. It has only one path that leads from the outer edge in a circuitous way to the centre. There are no tricks to it and no dead ends. Unlike a maze where you lose your way, the labyrinth is a spiritual tool that can help you find your way.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF WALKING THE LABYRINTH?

Walking the Labyrinth quiets the mind, opens the heart and grounds the body. Some find answers to questions long asked, some find healing, creativity, a sense of wholeness. What will you find on your labyrinth journey?
